3. [redacted] Carl Marcy, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called only a couple of hours after the Director's appearance before the Agency Subcommittees to say that Chairman Fulbright, who had attended the hearing before our Subcommittees, had been very favorably impressed with the Director's testimony and would like the Director to appear before an executive session of the full Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Wednesday (26 February) or Thursday (27 February). 25X1 10. [redacted] Barbara Fairbank, in the office of 25X1 Senator Charles H. Percy (R., Ill.), called to find out the address of STATSPEC
25X1A [redacted]
STATSPEC some time in the past. Based on the advice [redacted] that STATSPEC there would be no problem in providing the information, advised Miss Fairbank that the address was [redacted]

25X1 11. [redacted] Met with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and reviewed with him topics to be covered in the Director's briefing of the combined CIA Subcommittees tomorrow.

Mr. Braswell also advised me of the caucus of the Republican Committee members and the position taken by Senator Margaret Chase Smith (R., Maine) which resulted in her withdrawal from membership of all Subcommittees in the interest of permitting some of the newer Republican members to serve in more senior positions on these Subcommittees. It would appear, however, that as a practical matter, Senator Smith will be invited to all Subcommittee meetings and for all intents and purposes can be considered an "ex-officio" member of every Subcommittee.

25X1 12. [redacted] At his request, I met with James Gehrig, Chief Counsel, Senate Space Committee, who said he had been queried by Senator Len B. Jordan (R., Idaho) on some of the details involved in the nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. Senator Jordan is apparently interested in knowing how any cheating by the Soviets can be detected under the terms of this treaty. Gehrig seemed rather confused by this and tended to jumble the Test Ban Treaty with the Non-Proliferation Treaty in this regard. Gehrig wanted my advice as to who would be in the best position to discuss this with Senator Jordan. I told Gehrig my offhand reaction was that the State Department or ACDA could be responsive in this field but that I would check on it and be in touch with him.
